12 Days | Rome, Assisi, Florence, Venice, Capri, Sorrento

Starting at $ 2695.00 per person Departure from Rome | 9 meals

Day 1: Rome

Benvenuti a Roma! After you touch down at the airport, make your own way to your hotel. Check in and then enjoy the city at your leisure before spending your first night in Italy.

Day 2: Rome, Assisi, sienna, Florence

Departing at 7:15am from the Hotel Diana by a deluxe coach, you will arrive in Assisi, where you can explore this tiny town, surrounded by walls built in the middle ages, at your own leisure. Make time to visit the basilica of St. Francis, where you will see masterpieces by Giotto and Cimabue, and to have lunch (not included). Board the bus for sienna, a medieval town surrounded by ancient walls that is known for the Palio, an annual summertime horse race around the shell-shaped town square, piazza del campo. Next, you will continue on to Florence, where you will check in to your hotel before enjoying dinner and a well- earned night of rest.

Day 3: Florence

After breakfast, you will spend the day venturing around beautiful Florence, where, with the help of Michelangelo, Italian art reached its pinnacle. Based on Etruscan-Roman origins, the city flourished in the middle ages as a free commune and was further refined by the renaissance. Because of its numerous monuments, churches, and buildings, Florence is known as the "cradle of renaissance," the crowning architectural jewel being the domed cathedral: Santa Maria del Fiore, more commonly referred to as the Duomo. On your visit, you will be amazed by its magnificent dome built by Filippo Brunelleschi. Cross a small piazza to see the campanile tower (partly designed by Giotto) and the baptistry, with its bronze doors that Michelangelo dubbed the "gates of paradise." In the heart of the city, you will see the Piazza Della Signoria, Palazzo Della Signoria (also known as Palazzo Vecchio), and the Santa Croce Basilica. Spend the afternoon strolling the cobblestone streets of Florence on your own or take a short trip to Pisa (optional), one of the four main historical marine republics of Italy. There, you will tour the square of miracles, which houses the Duomo, the leaning tower, and the Baptistry. Florence dinner and overnight stay.

Day 4: Florence, Bologna, Padova, Venice

Depart for Bologna after breakfast in Florence. There, you will wander through the city's 38 kilometers worth of elegant arcades (or porticos), for which bologna is famous. From piazza Malpighi, we will walk to Piazza del Nettuno and Piazza Maggiore (Neptune square and major square) in the heart of the city, where you will find Neptune fountain; King Renzo Palace; Podestà Palace; and the basilica of San Petronio, one of the biggest in the world. In the afternoon, continue toward Padova, with its original Sant' Antonio Basilica. Later, you will arrive in Venice, world-renowned for its classic gondola boats and its elegant, refined art. Check in to your hotel and enjoy your first Venetian dinner and overnight stay.

Day 5: Venice

Hit the water after breakfast as you board a private water bus to enjoy an outstanding cruise through the lagoon of Venice before stopping at Murano. The ancient art of glass blowing is still carried on in the town, thanks to a few « Maestri » left on the island. Then on to St. Mark's Square, exterior visit of the splendid cathedral, the Doge palace, a symbol of the glory and authority of Venice as it housed the seat of the government and the court of justice. Nearby you will see the legendary bridge of sight. Spend the afternoon roaming along Venice's canals at your leisure and then return to the hotel for dinner and relaxation.

Day 6: Venice, Montepulciano (Tuscany), Rome

Once you eat breakfast, depart from Piazzale Roma to Tuscany, known for its romantic churches and castles and its infamous wines. You will proceed to Val di Chiana with a stop in Montepulciano, a medieval town rich with history and art. Known for its "nobile" wine, which can be purchased in wine houses in town, Montepulciano is also the host of an annual jazz and wine festival every July. Spend the afternoon getting to know Montepulciano at your own pace and tasting the local wines. That evening, you will check in to your new hotel in Rome.

Day 7: Rome

Between 7:45 - 8:00am, depart from the hotel after breakfast to walk this famous city, taking in the sights of its artistic beauties such as St. Peter's square, Navona square, the Pantheon (visit inside), Trevi Fountain. Explore the rest of the city at your own leisure until you decide that you can't do any more walking. Return to the hotel to give your feet some rest and for your overnight in Rome.

Day 8: Rome, Naples, Pompeii, Sorrento

After breakfast at your hotel, a coach bus will depart at 7:00am, taking the highway "of the sun" through the regions of Lazio and Campania, where you will see a picturesque view of the abbey of Montecassino. Upon arriving in Naples, you will go on a short panoramic city tour, seeing sites such as the Mergellina neighborhood, Castel Dell'Ovo, Plebiscito square, the royal palace, Maschio Angioino, and the port. Have lunch in a restaurant en route to Pompeii and then visit the excavations of the famous Roman city, destroyed by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A.D. Leaving Pompeii, you will drive along the Sorrentine coast, arriving in Sorrento for dinner and an overnight in your new hotel.

Day 9: Sorrento

Stop in to your hotel for breakfast and dinner while you spend the day exploring Sorrento on your own.

Day 10: Sorrento, Capri

Board a boat for the island of Capri after breakfast. Depending on weather and sea conditions, you will enter the infamous blue grotto in a small rowboat. After, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant and then roam the island at your own pace. That afternoon, check in to your new hotel for dinner and an overnight.

Day 11: Capri, Rome

Spend a leisurely morning eating breakfast at your hotel and then exploring Capri. That afternoon, depart for Rome, where you will check in to your hotel and spend the night.

Day 12: Rome

Enjoy one final breakfast before the tour comes to an end.
